

Enhancing the News

September 2006

Best Made for TV Documentary

A compelling look at the little known political tensions in the Indonesian province of Aceh was the winner of the Screenrights Best Made for TV Doco award at this years DOCNZ conference. The Black Road delves deep into the lives of the Acehnese people as they struggle against Indonesian rule. Filmmaker William Nessen completely emerged himself in the war and put his own life at risk on several occasions during the making of this remarkable film. The Black Road is available for sale in the EnhanceTV online store and there is an accompanying study guide for free download.

